

DEATH OF CHRIST PASTOR'S SUBJECT

Special Services Are Held in Local Churches, Commemorative of Christ's Trials Before His Crucifixion.

Christians throughout the city again attended services last night in commemoration of passion week, the week before Easter when Christ was crucified and buried. Services were held in a large number of the churches of the city and the pastors connected their sermons with the events of the life of Christ during each day of passion week. All Catholic churches of the city held devotional services last night and will hold special services this morning and evening.

"Christ has given to mankind the truest conception of God through Christianity, while all other religions have a distorted conception of God. Where Christian missionaries go first they find the most horrible superstitions practiced in the name of religion," said Rev. T. J. Parsons, pastor of Quincy Street Baptist church, last night in his sermon on "Christ or Anti-Christ."

"Christ has blessed the world with light and intelligence while in many Christian lands the people have remained in darkness and ignorance through many ages, as Africa, India and China. The 'Indian Witness,' a monthly magazine, stated in its last issue that, 'During the past 500 years no pagan country has produced a single invention or made a discovery to benefit mankind but wherever Christianity and the gospel goes, a change soon becomes evident.'"

"The Devil's Catpaw" is the subject for this evening's sermon to be delivered by Rev. Parsons.

"A Word of Suffering" was the subject of the sermon delivered last night by Rev. C. A. Decker, pastor of the First Baptist church. In part he said, "The only reference that Christ made to His physical suffering while on the cross was 'I thirst.' A soldier who was present had the privilege of serving Jesus in His dying moments for when Christ cried 'I thirst' he ran with a sponge full of sour wine to give to Him. He did the best for Christ that he was able and some such way we today are privileged to relieve the sufferings of Him in His dying love for the world."

This evening Mr. Decker will talk on "Word of Victory" which is the sixth sermon of a series of seven on the general theme, "The Seven Words of Christ From the Cross."

"A Day of Retirement" was the subject of Rev. John S. Burns, pastor of the Trinity Presbyterian church. He said, "No record is furnished of the events that took place in the life of Christ on Wednesday during passion week. Christ it is believed rested during the day at Bethany and at Mt. Olivet."

"We find that we do not retire as much as we should from our duties but a time shall come when we shall get a new grasp on ourselves and as Christ did we will go into retirement and give our bodies a chance to rest in order that we might get strength for the conflicts that we meet during our lives."

Rev. Howard J. Clifford, assistant pastor at the First Presbyterian church, will lead in the services this evening.

"Love for Christ," Topic. "Love for Christ" was the theme of Rev. Cecil Franklin, pastor of Indiana Avenue Christian church, at the Grace Methodist Episcopal church at the passion week services.

He said, "Our great love for Christ is a power that is found back of true evangelism of the world. The reformation, the great revival under Wesley and other big evangelistic movements are brought about through the love of Christ by the men in the movement."

Rev. J. W. Bunch, pastor of Epworth Memorial church will talk this evening.

Rev. George William Allison, pastor of Hope Presbyterian chapel, spoke on the life of Christ during the first three days of passion week, relating the incidents and events that took place during each day.

"Watch and Pray" was the subject of the sermon delivered last night at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church by Dr. James L. Gardiner, pastor of the church. This was the first service to be held at the church in commemoration of passion week and the auditorium was filled.

Tonight Dr. Gardiner will speak on "The Night That Christ Was Betrayed," after which the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered.

Rev. Charles A. Lippincott, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, spoke last night on "An Unrecorded Day." This evening the pastor will talk on "The Last Meeting."

SERVICES TODAY. Passion week services began this morning at 8 o'clock at the Trinity Hungarian church by Rev. Victor von Kinyi, rector of the church. Services will be held each morning and evening at 8 o'clock until Easter Sunday.

PERMITS WIFE TO SELL. Judge Ford Wednesday afternoon held that Helma Nystrom could dispose of two lots located on Michigan av. without having her husband join with her in the deed. The wife had sought this right on the grounds that her husband had deserted her and left her in need.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFUL, CHARMING HAIR. NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair and stops it falling out.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and just try it. —Adv.

WARNED MOTHER OF AIRSHIP RAID.

MISS
RUTHERFORD

LONDON.—How Miss Barbara Ruthertford, daughter of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, sr., warned her mother to flee to the cellar when Zeppelins raided Paris last week, was told when Mrs. Vanderbilt arrived in London. She is returning from Paris to New York to obtain funds for an American ambulance.

"My daughter rushed into the bedroom and cried 'Run to the cellar mother, the Zeppelins are over Paris,'" said Mrs. Vanderbilt. "Against my will I was fairly dragged to the cellar. I insisted, however, on going upstairs to see the airships. One passed almost over our garden leaving a trail of sparks. I was not frightened but I felt thrill."

FINDS FOR DEFENDANT.

ATTORNEYS FORM PERMANENT CLUB

Will Meet Once a Month and Discuss Topics of Legal Interest—Atty. Floyd Deahl Reads Paper on J. Marshall.

A permanent organization of the younger attorneys of the city was started at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night, when some 35 members of the South Bend bar met and discussed a paper which was read by Atty. Floyd Deahl. The club will be patterned to some extent after the Round Table, with the exception that current legal questions will form the topic of discussion at its meetings.

The meeting last night was an experiment, according to Atty. Deahl, and was so successful that plans for a permanent organization were at once placed before the lawyers present.

Atty. Deahl's paper was upon "John Marshall," and extracts from it are as follows:

"The inviolable right to the pursuit of happiness is the greatest blessing a government can give to its people. The impregnability of this privilege marks the true grandeur of a nation. Judged by this criterion the American republic, in the dark hours which followed the adoption of the constitution, was sinking to a low ebb of national honor. The masses were fearful lest the safeguard of their newborn liberty should prove the means of tyranny. They were demanding justice."

"Then upon the dark clouds of fear and uncertainty, a strong hand wrote in letters of fire, 'The constitution still lives; is now and ever shall be the voice of the people. The government is amenable to its limitations.'"

"The masses were silenced and pacified. John Marshall had spoken the word which made the constitution a reality, and fixed forever the status of a nation."

Discussion of the paper followed its reading, after which the members present appointed an arrangement committee of three, composed of Orrie Parker, Samuel B. O'Neil, who acted as chairman, and Lenn J. Oare. These men will plan the entertainment and program of the next meeting, which will be held at the Chamber of Commerce. The election of officers will take place at that time also.

A board of five governors will be named, in whose hands the programs of all meetings will be placed. They shall name the member who shall read the paper at each meeting, and name the legal angle upon which it will be based.

The discussion of the April meeting will be preceded by a banquet.

PETITION FOR DIVORCES

Charging that his wife was insanely jealous of him and that he could do nothing to please her and that she deserted him on June 15, 1911, after they had been married for eight years, Raymond A. Proctor has petitioned the circuit court to grant him a divorce from Frances W. Proctor.

Maud M. Alward petitioned the superior court Wednesday to grant her a divorce from Elmer V. Alward on the grounds that he had abused her and had threatened to shoot her. She says that they lived together for less than a year and she asks for $200 a year support money for her one child.

Anna Wagner petitioned the same court Wednesday to grant her a divorce from Arthur Wagner, who she says deserted her after they had been married for 12 years. She says that he continually complained of his meals and said that he wished that he had not married. The petitioner wants the charge of two children.
